

Covid 19 and oral challenges related to Orthodontic practice

Abdelmajeed Mohamed Leithy

Orthodontic department faculty of oral and dental medicine ACU, Egypt.

Abstract

Covid 19 is a global pandemic that is greatly affect dental practice especially orthodontic one. Fear of contracting covid 19 at dental session affect dental professionals as well as patients. Nowadays, precautions during practice and patient education through many channels become essential to implement. Therefore, this lecture is going to through light on important clinically applicable techniques and patient education tools to decrease the incidence of covid 19 contracting

Received: July 13, 2022; Accepted: July 19, 2022; Published: July 25, 2022

Biography

Speaker at many previous dental conferences, forums, symposiums, and currently lectural at Orthodontic department faculty of oral and dental medicine ACU, Egypt.